The ladies of the Rector's Aid Society of St. Margaret's Episcopal Church will hold an attractive tea, fancy sale, and musical in the ballroom of the Raleigh this afternoon and evening, from 4 to 10 o'clock. Fancy articles, dolls, candy, cigars, a mystery table, and fortune telling will be the attractions. At 5:30 o'clock a musical programme will be given by the church quartet, assisted by the Raleigh orchestra. The singers will be Mrs. DeVo, Miss Humphrey, Mr. Delbert, and Mr. Hensley. Among those assisting will be Mrs. Quintard, Mrs. William Heron, Mrs. Royal B. Bradford, Mrs. Rust Smith, Mrs. Benjamin Mico, Mrs. Judson C. Clements, Mrs. E. H. Townsend, Miss Caroline Smith, Mrs. Sevin Brown, Mrs. Walter Dunlop, Mrs. F. A. Barnum, and Mrs. T. F. Jewell.

Prince and Princess Albert Radzwill, of Warsaw, Poland, have arrived in Washington and are stopping at the New Willard. Princess Radzwill was formerly Miss Dorothy Deacon, of Boston, Mass. They will be entertained extensively during their stay here.

Mrs. Thomas M. Chard gave a luncheon yesterday for her debutante niece, Miss Sarah Belle Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William R. G. Williams, of Baltimore, Md. Invited to meet the pretty debutante were Miss C. May, Miss Martha Bowers, Miss Elsie Downing, Miss Sophy Johnston, Miss Mary Hovary, Miss Ruth Price, Miss Rebekah Wilmer, Miss Gladys Hineckley, Miss Harrison, and Miss Elizabeth Rush Darrin.

Mrs. Robert McCormick has leased the residence belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Guy Norman for the winter season.

Mrs. Stimson, wife of the Secretary of War, will give a dance in honor of her debutante niece, Miss Gamble, of Philadelphia, Pa., on Wednesday evening, December 11.

Every effort is being made by Mr. and Mrs. Edward McLean to make the third anniversary of the birth of Master Vinson Walsh McLean a happy occasion. They have invited a score or more of his wealthy little playmates to attend the party this afternoon. It will be one of the most elaborate ever given in celebration of a little boy's birthday.

Mrs. Henry White has sent out invitations for a tea on Wednesday afternoon, December 11, from 4 to 7 o'clock, at her home in Crescent Place.

Mrs. Barden, wife of Maj. Barden, entertained at a young people's tea yesterday afternoon at her quarters at the Marine Barracks for her debutante guests, Miss Randolph and Miss Ambler, of Baltimore. They will remain with Mrs. Barden for the week-end and will attend the hop to-night.

Rev. Dr. George William Douglas and Mrs. Douglas, of New York City, are spending the next fortnight in Washington at the Hotel Powhatan and while here will be extensively entertained by their old friends and former parishioners. Dr. Douglas was formerly rector of St. John's Church.

Dr. and Mrs. Richard S. Hill and the Misses Hill, who made their debut last season, have closed their country home in Maryland and have moved to the residence 187 S Street for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. John Patten have sold their residence in R Street and are residing at the Ontario while the house they are now building in the Northwest is being completed.

Miss Ethel Roosevelt and Miss Curtis, who have been visiting Miss Cecelia May, have returned to New York.

Miss Mabel Boardman has sent out invitations for a large reception on Wednesday evening, December 11, at 9 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Christian D. Hennick will go to Philadelphia to-day to attend the dinner which Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Stotesbury are giving at the Bellevue-Stratford to-night. Other Washingtonians who will also be present are the Postmaster General, Mr. Frank Hitchcock; Mr. and Mrs. Edson Bradley; Mr. and Mrs. William Corcoran III; Mrs. Corbin, and Mrs. Biddle Porter.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Bell have moved their residence in Connecticut Avenue for the winter.

The Rev. Roland Cotton Smith and Mrs. Cotton Smith and their daughter, Miss Cotton Smith, leave Washington to-day for Atlantic City, where they will spend the next fortnight. The marriage of Miss Cotton Smith and Mr. Guy Emerson will take place during the latter part of January.

Among the Washingtonians who will attend Mrs. Horatio Slater's ball in Boston to-night for her daughter, Miss Esther Slater, are Mrs. Rockwood Hour, Miss Hour, Miss Elizabeth Field Rogers, and Miss Gladys Hinchey.

Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Minor, of Los Angeles, have left the New Willard, where they were stopping, en route to California. Mr. and Mrs. Christian Hennick invited some of Mrs. Minor's friends to meet them at a small tea in Studio House. Among those present were Mrs. Biddle, Mrs. Sheppard, Mrs. Hinchey, Mrs. Wason, Mrs. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Chase, Miss Patten, Miss Sherrill, Miss Sheridan, and Miss Stevens.

The wedding of Miss Isabel Martin, of this city, to Mr. Clifford Spencer Lewis, of Cincinnati and Washington, took place on Wednesday at noon at the Stafford Hotel in Baltimore, Md. In the apartment of the bride's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Harmanus Barkley Dumas, of New York, only relatives witnessed the ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. William M. Dime, rector of Memorial Protestant Episcopal Church.

The bride wore a handsome gown of white tulle, trimmed with point lace and a full veil held in place by orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of white and pink roses. The bridesmaids wore pale blue chiffon over blue charmeuse and trimmed with an edging of pale pink chiffon. They carried a bouquet of white and pink roses. The best man was Mr. Robert Heitz, of Baltimore.

These present included Mrs. Dumas's sister, Mrs. Edward Saxton, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Heitz, Mr. Charles B. White, Mr. and Mrs. C. Ridgely White, Mr. and Mrs. W. Winchester White, Miss Louie Taylor, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Taylor, of Baltimore; and Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. Taylor White, Miss Louie Taylor White, and Mrs. Graves, of this city.

Following a wedding breakfast at the hotel, the bride and bridegroom left for a honeymoon tour. They will live here, where Mr. Lewis has a position in the United States Department of Agriculture.

Representative Henry Allen Cooper and Mrs. Cooper arrived yesterday from Racine, Wis., and have taken apartments for the winter at the Hotel Powhatan.

The tea, bazaar, and musical to be given by the ladies of St. Margaret's Church in the ballroom of the Raleigh Hotel to-day from 2 to 10 o'clock p. m. promises to be a great success. Attractive booths have been arranged for fancy work, dolls, preserves, candy, cigars, fortune telling, household articles, and a mystery table. For the children there will be a grab bag, which will be presided over by Mrs. Judson C. Clements. Afternoon tea will be served from 2 to 4 o'clock, and supper will be served from 6 to 10 o'clock. A number of attractive young girls will act as waitresses. The proceeds of this entertainment will be used for the nucleus of a fund for the building of a parish hall and Sunday school room.

Capt. James Logan, U. S. A., entertained at a dinner in his residence in H Street last night in honor of Miss Dorothy Alshire, debutante daughter of Brig. Gen. and Mrs. Alshire.

Mrs. Melville D. Church will be at home this afternoon and the remaining Fridays in December at her apartment in the Parkwood.

The first Navy Yard dance of the season will be in the officers' quarters on the evening of December 11.

Mr. and Mrs. Pembroke Pope, of Washington, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. McCandless, at their home in Atlanta, Ga.

Mrs. Glue Mitchell gave a charming reception at her home in Cincinnati, Ohio, on Tuesday afternoon for her very attractive house guest, Mrs. W. H. Rapley, of this city, who is there for a ten days' stay. The hostess, Mrs. Rapley, Miss Rena DeCamp, and Mrs. Percy DeCamp comprised the receiving line, and assisting through the rooms, which were very attractive with their vases of flowers, were a half dozen of the hostess's intimates. A few men added to the interest of the party in the late afternoon, and they had hoped to greet Mr. Rapley, who was, however, detained in Washington, but will go there later, joining his wife in her visit and accompanying her home. Mrs. Rapley will be a very popular guest and many affairs are being arranged for her. Several hundred guests enjoyed the Tuesday tea.

Owing to the death of her aunt, Mrs. Robert Gwilt, the marriage of Miss Constance Warren, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Henry Warren, to Count Guy de Laeterville will be quietly celebrated at the home of her parents, 24 Fifth Avenue, New York, December 18. Only the immediate relatives will be asked to the ceremony, and there will be no reception.

Miss Esther Foote, the attractive debutante daughter of Col. and Mrs. Stephen Foote, with her mother, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Edward von Knobloch, at their home in Baltimore. Mr. and Mrs. Knobloch will give a small dinner in her honor on Monday evening before the first Monday dinner. Miss Foote has many friends in Baltimore, having attended several social functions early in the season, and will return to Washington in time for the large reception which her parents are giving in her honor on Wednesday, December 11.

PUPILS TO GIVE TOYS.

Friends School Students to Distribute Playthings to Poor Children.

Christmas gifts for the children of many poor families will be provided by the pupils of Friends Select School, according to a plan which has just been adopted at that institution. Dr. Thomas W. Shidwell, principal of the school, has authorized the teachers to suggest to the pupils that all toys of which they are tired, be brought to the Friends School during the week before Christmas. The teachers of Friends School will consult with the agents of the Associated Charities, and the toys will be distributed after careful investigation.
